OBITUARY

GENSER, DAVID

David Genser

Retired jewelry manufacturer; member of Temple Beth-El; Providence resident

PROVIDENCE — David Genser, 84, of 99 Hillside Ave., a retired jewelry manufacturer and a resident-member of the Jewish Home for the Aged, 99 Hillside Ave., died there yesterday. The late Ida (Teplitsky) Genser was his wife.

Mr. Genser was the owner of the Genser Mfg. Co. until retiring.

He was a member of Roosevelt Lodge, Temple Beth-El and the Touro Fraternal Association.

Born in Austria Oct. 15, 1894, he was a son of the late Jacob and Sarah Genser and was a Providence resident since childhood.

He is survived by a son, Howard Genser of Knoxville, Tenn.; a daughter, Mrs. Shirley Cohen of Providence; a sister, Mrs. Julia Jacobson of Warwick, and five grandchildren.

Services will be held today at 2 p.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.