AARON GERSTENBLATT

Funeral services for Aaron Gerstenblatt of 60 Pembroke Avenue, who died May 19, were held that day in the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. He was proprietor of the Gersten Auto Supply Company, which he founded 43 years ago.

He was the husband of Natalie (Vario) Gerstenblatt, and a lifelong Providence resident. He was born Sept. 8, 1904, a son of the late Solomon and Etta (Zummer) Gerstenblatt. He was a member of the Temple Beth David Men's Club.

Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Miss Barbara Gerstenblatt, at home; three sisters, Mrs. Henry Brill, and Mrs. Israel Talan, both of Providence and Mrs. Joseph Scheffler of Hollywood, Fla.; and two brothers, Harry and Philip Gerstenblatt, both of Providence.
