GERSTENBLA
James

PJ - 4 Warwick - 18-2000

JAMES M. GERSTENBLATT, 79, of Fairfax Drive, the owner and president of Greenwich Auto Parts since 1946, died Sunday at Harborside Healthcare Greenwood House.

He was the husband of Esther Sparrer Bernstein Gerstenblatt and the late Beatrice (Kahn) Gerstenblatt. Born in Providence, a son of the late Harry and Bessie (Brill) Gerstenblatt, he lived in Warwick for 37 years.

Mr. Gerstenblatt also owned the former Doyle Auto Supply.

An Army veteran of World War II, Mr. Gerstenblatt served in Iran from 1942 until 1945. He was a member of the Masons, Roosevelt/Redwood Lodge, AF&AM, and Scottish Rite, Valley of Providence.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Joel K. Gerstenblatt of Warwick and Stephen N. Gerstenblatt of Cranston; three brothers, Sidney Gerstenblatt of Dover, N.H., Victor Gerstenblatt of Monticello, N.Y., and Wilfred Gerstenblatt of family omit flowers.

GERSTENBLATT, James M.
April 16, 2000. Residence: 150 Fairfax Dr., Warwick. Beloved husband of Esther (Sparrer Bernstein) Gerstenblatt and the late Beatrice (Kahn) Gerstenblatt. Devoted father of Joel K. and Deborah Gerstenblatt of Warwick, and Stephen N. and Linda Gerstenblatt of Cranston. Dear brother of Sidney Gerstenblatt of Dover, N.H.; Victor Gerstenblatt of Monticello, N.Y.; and Wilfred Gerstenblatt of Manhattan, N.Y. Loving grandfather of Brett, Sheri, Michael and Sara. Funeral services Tuesday at 1 p.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Temple Sinai or your favorite charity. Shiva will be observed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Gerstenblatt, 9 Cliffside Dr., Cranston, Tuesday 7-9, and Wednesday 2-4 p.m. only, due to the Passover holiday.