Retired Jewelry Manufacturer Dies Suddenly At Age of 77

Max Gertsacov, 77, who for many years was prominent in the jewelry manufacturing business in Providence, died suddenly yesterday at his home, 75 Taft Avenue. He had been retired for the past two years.

A native of Mogilov, Russia, Mr. Gertsacov came to Providence 55 years ago and resided in this city ever since. Before going into the jewelry manufacturing business he had been, shortly after the turn of the century, a construction contractor.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Ethel (Reffkin) Gertsacov; two daughters, Mrs. Adolph Gorman and Mrs. Leonard Slavit of Providence; two sons, Irving Gertsacov, president and treasurer of Lawrence Mfg., Inc., Providence, and Edward Gertsacov of Harrisburg, Pa.; 10 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at the Max Sugarman Funeral Home, 458 Hope Street. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery.
