ANNE (GOLDBERG) GILBERT, 95, of Centre Street, Boston, formerly of Providence and Cranston, a retired legal secretary, died Wednesday at Hebrew Rehabilitation Center, Roslindale, Mass.

She was the wife of the late Louis Gilbert. They had been married for 56 years. Born in Boston, a daughter of the late Abraham and Minnie (Anapolsky) Goldberg, she moved to Providence in 1934 and then to Cranston before returning to Boston six years ago.

She had been a legal secretary for Edwards & Angell for many years before retiring. Before that, she had worked and volunteered at Rhode Island Hospital, Providence. She had also volunteered for Save the Bay and the Providence Arts Council.

Mrs. Gilbert was a 1926 graduate of East Boston High School.

She had been a member of the former Congregation Sons of Abraham and the former Temple Beth-Torat.

She loved to travel.

She leaves a son, Arthur Gilbert of Denver; two daughters, Marian Knapp of Newton, Mass., and Paula Gilbert of Fairfax, Va.; and five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. She was a sister of the late Samuel, Charles, William, Morrie and Ida Goldberg, Rose Schmuller and Gertrude Weiner.

A graveside service will be held Sunday at 12:45 p.m. in Sharon (Mass.) Memorial Park.
