ADOLPH GINSBURG DIES AT AGE OF 66

Adolph Ginsburg, a resident of this city for 45 years and well known as a millinery merchant, died suddenly at his home, 150 Camp street, yesterday morning. He was 66 years old.

Mr. Ginsburg apparently was in good health when he retired Saturday night. He had not complained of illness, according to members of his family. He died in his sleep.

Mr. Ginsburg was born in Roumania. He settled in this city and entered the wholesale millinery business which he carried on until about five years ago, when he opened a retail millinery store at 82 Mathewson street.

He was well known not only as a merchant but for his efforts in behalf of Jewish interests and charitable endeavors. He was one of the organizers of Havath Sholom Synagogue and a member of the board of directors of the men's club of the synagogue. He was a member and an active worker of Bicker Cholom Lodge, Jewish fraternal organization, and several other associations.

His wife, Mrs. Sarah Ginsburg, died three months ago.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Harry Magid of Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Samuel Silverstein of Birmingham, Ala., and Mrs. Harold Kelman of New York, and one son, Samuel Ginsburg, of this city.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Max Sugarman Funeral Home, 146-150 Randall street, tomorrow afternoon. Interment will be in the family plot at Lincoln Park Cemetery.

AUG. 6, 1934.

GINSBURG, ADOLPH
