GITTLEMAN, DOROTHY FOSTER (GREENE)

PSJ 5-26-2002

DOROTHY FOSTER (GREENE) GITTLEMAN, 92, of Victoria Court, 55 Oaklawn Ave., a retired nurse, died yesterday at Scalabrini Villa, 860 North Quidnessett Rd., North Kingstown.

She was the wife of the late Sidney Gittleman. Born in Leominster, Mass., a daughter of the late Ira Charles and Theresa (Foster) Greene, she had lived in Cranston before moving to Warwick, where she had lived for 22 years before she returned to Cranston 2 years ago.

She was a 1930 graduate of the former Homeopathic Hospital School of Nursing, now Roger Williams Medical Center in Providence, where she had worked for 10 years after graduation.

Mrs. Gittleman had been an assistant bookkeeper at Rhode Island Temps, in Warwick, for 12 years before retiring five years ago. She previously had been a book-department manager at the former Outlet Co. department store in Garden City.

She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and a former member of the Bonnet Shores Women's Club.

Mrs. Gittleman was a former member of Temple Torat Yisrael and Temple Sinai.

She was an avid bridge player and reader.

She leaves a son, Allan Gittleman of East Greenwich; two daughters, Donna Sinel of North Kingstown and Diane Seaback Martin of Warwick; seven grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren. She was a sister of the late Leon Greene, Beatrice Elliott and Madeline Heddle.

The funeral service and burial will be private.
