PJ-B 2-20-82

Obituaries

Emanuel Gittelman

WARWICK — Emanuel Gittelman, 62, of 40 Cedar Pond Drive, vice president of Crest Productions, a Fall River theatrical business, died Wednesday at Boca Raton, Fla., Community Hospital. He was the husband of Esther (Strasberg) Gittelman.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., a son of the late Rubin and Sophie (Unkeles) Gittelman, he formerly lived in Fall River.

Mr. Gittelman formerly was vice president and on the board of directors of Pickwick Industries. He also was a member of the board of directors of Adas Israel Synagogue, and the B'nai B'rith and its Anti-Defamation League, all in Fall River.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Michael Kaminsky; a daughter, Diane Kaminsky, both of Warwick, and a brother, Daniel Gittelman of Fall River.

A funeral service was held yesterday at Adas Israel Syngogue, Nichols Street, Fall River. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

GITTELMAN, EMANUEL