

The Providence Sunday Journal, December 19, 1982

Alexander K. Gladstone

PROVIDENCE — Alexander K. Gladstone, 87, of 99 Hillside Ave., the Jewish Home for the Aged, a salesman for the Northwestern Insurance Co. for 30 years, retiring four years ago, died yesterday at the home. He was the husband of the late Etta (Maker) Gladstone.

Born in Russia, a son of the late Benjamin and Naomi (Seligman) Gladstone, he lived in Providence 45 years. He previously lived in Fall River 28 years.

Mr. Gladstone was a past vice president and treasurer of Temple Beth Sholam-Sons of Zion, a past president of the Hebrew Free Loan Association and a past chancellor commander of the Knights of Pythias, Fall River. He was a former clerk of the finance committee of the R.I. Senate.

He leaves two sons, S. Lawrence Gladstone of Houston, Tex., and Arthur Z. Gladstone of Lake Forest, Ill.; a daughter, Mrs. Norma Soforenko of Springfield, Mass.; a brother, Lewis Gladstone of Delray Beach, Fla.; three sisters, Mrs. Ruth Rebac-Kaufman of Providence, Mrs. Naomi Kantrowitz-Gold of Delray Beach and Mrs. Rae Frieden of Miami, Fla.; 12 grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

A funeral service will be held today at noon at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

GLADSTONE, ALEXANDER K.