HARRIET GLADSTONE, 70, of 65 Sargent Ave., a social worker for the City of Providence for five years before becoming a nursery school teacher at the Congregation Beth Sholom nursery school, retiring in 1986, died yesterday at home. She was the widow of Bernard C. Gladstone.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Morris and Helen (Bender) Fishbein, she had lived in Providence all her life.

She was a member of the board of directors and former secretary of Congregation Beth Sholom and a past president of the congregation's sisterhood. She was also a member of the Jewish Home for the Aged Women's Association.

Mrs. Gladstone leaves three sons, Bruce Gladstone of Providence, Jeffrey Gladstone of East Greenwich and Scott Gladstone of Somerville, Mass.; two brothers, Gilbert Fishbein and Dr. Joseph Jay Fishbein, both of Providence, and six grandchildren. She was the mother of the late Andrea Saltzman and the sister of the late Ruth Garber.

Funeral services will be held today at 2 p.m. at Congregation Beth Shalom, corner of Rochambeau Avenue and Camp Street, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
