EB 5-22-81

Philip Glanzman

Wholesaler of paper products, liquors and beer dies at 87

PROVIDENCE — Philip Glanzman, 87, founder and president of Philip Glanzman & Co., Inc., 48 Charles St., wholesalers of liquors and beer, died today at his home, 93 Hartshorn Rd., where he was stricken.

From 1919 until 1934, he was a wholesaler of paper products, and a wholesaler of alcoholic beverages from 1933 until his retirement in 1967.

Born in Boston, he was a son of the late Herman and Sarah (Saunders) Glanzman and was a Providence resident most of his life.

He was a member of Temple Emanu-El and the temple's men's club; the advisory committee of the Jewish Community Center, the Providence Hebrew Day School, the Rhode Island Police Chief's Associaion, the Hebrew Free Loan Association and the Jewish Theological Society.

He was a 50-year member of both B'nai B'rith and the Providence Lodge of Elks 14; an honorary life member of the Corporation of the Miriam Hospital; a member and trustee of the Jewish Home For the Aged and a member of the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island.

He was a 50-year member of Roosevelt Lodge 42, AF & AM, and a 50-year member of the United Commercial Travelers; a member of the Metacomet Country Club, the Moslem Grotto, the New England Grotto, Royal Arch Chapter 1, Providence Council 1, the Palestine Temple of Shriners and a 32nd degree Mason.

His only survivors are nieces.

The funeral service will be held Sunday at 10 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

GLANZMAN
Philip