

GLASSER,
Benjamin

~~RIKER 10-23-64~~

BENJAMIN F. GLASSER

Funeral services for Benjamin F. Glasser, 57, of 9 Mount Avenue, a children's garment manufacturer in Pawtucket for five years before retiring six months ago, who died Oct. 17, were held Monday at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery.

The husband of Edyth (Bergel) Glasser, he was born in Boston, a son of Hyman Glasser and the late Sarah (Davidson) Glasser. He had lived in Providence for the last five years. He was a member of Temple Beth El, Roger Williams Lodge, B'nai B'rith, Brotherhood Lodge, F & AM of Boston. He was an Air Force veteran of World War II.

Besides his wife and father, he is survived by a son, Edward Glasser, of Newton, Mass.; three brothers, Albert Glasser of Brookline, Mass., Israel Glasser of Newton, Mass., and Eli Glasser of Washington, D. C.; a sister, Mrs. Moses Hirsh of Newton, and six grandchildren. ✓