

21 HER 2 * 11 * 29-63
ALBERT B. GLASSMAN

Funeral services for Albert B. Glassman, 65, of 265 Laurel Avenue, who died Nov. 22 after an illness of two weeks, were held Sunday at 1 P.M. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery.

He was founder of Albert Glassman, Inc., retail floor covering firm which had outlets in New England and New York. In Providence and Cranston, the firm is known as Cut-Rate Floor Covering. It has stores on North Main Street and Reservoir Avenue.

Mr. Glassman was the originator of cash-and-carry floor covering discount stores in the United States.

Born in Russia on Dec. 10, 1897, a son of Mrs. Molly Glassman of Kearney, N. J., and the late Israel Glassman, he had lived in Providence for 25 years. Before coming to Providence, he had lived in Newton, Mass., for six years, and previously in Newark.

Mr. Glassman was a member of Temple Beth El, the Mount Moriah Lodge, F & AM of Lincoln, the Hebrew Free Loan Association, the Aurora Club, and the New England Carpet Club.

He was a Navy veteran of World War I.

Besides his wife, Mrs. Betty (Somer) Glassman and his mother, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Harvey Salk, Mrs. Sidney Miller and Mrs. Solon Jaffe, all of Providence; four sisters, Mrs. Lillian Barret of Newark, Mrs. Harry Rich of Miami Beach, Mrs.

(Continued on Page 6) ✓

GLASSMAN,
Albert