PROVIDENCE

GLASSMAN, SAMUEL H., 98, of Providence, died October 5, 2007. He was the husband of Stella (Simons) Glassman.

Born in Cumberland, a son of the late Nathan and Goldie (Saslavsky) Glassman, he was a lifelong resident of Rhode Island. Mr. Glassman attended Northeastern University and was an executive with Brooks Drugs, formerly Adams Drug Co., for 44 years prior to his retirement in 1986. A member of Temple Emanu-El, he was a mason with St. John's Lodge, formerly Bonnie Merrie Lodge; he was also a member of the RI Jewish Historical Association, and the RI School of Design Museum.

Besides his wife he is survived by his children, Paul Glassman of New York City, Ruth Feder of East Greenwich and Nancy Glassman of West Warwick; his sister, Ethel Kaplan of Warwick; and his grandchildren, Theo and Jill Feder. He was the brother of the late Rose Sandler, Bessie Bonneville, Martha Schwartz and Ann Gorden.

Funeral service will be held in the Samuel Priest Chapel in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick on Sunday, October 7th at 11:30 A.M. Relatives and friends are invited to attend. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to the charity of your choice. Shiva will be observed at the home of Seth and Ruth Feder, 59 Larch Road, East Greenwich on Monday, October 8th, 2-5 P.M. The family was assisted with arrangements by SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL.
