GLATT, IRVING

IRVING GLATT, 76, of Baldino Drive, a retired operations manager, died Wednesday at Roger Williams Medical Center, Providence.

He was the husband of Evelyn (Fischer) Glatt. They had been married for 48 years. Born in Providence, a son of the late David and Rebecca (Glass) Glatt, he had lived in Cranston for many years, moved to Maine for five years, and had lived in Cranston since 1988.

Mr. Glatt had worked at Metals Recycling, Johnston, for four years, retiring in 1992. He had previously worked for Harcon Inc., Portland, Maine, for five years, and had been operations director for the former New England Metal Co., Providence, for 26 years.

He was a member of the New England Truckers Association.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Phillip Glatt of Cranston; a daughter, Rise Siegel of Farmington Hills, Mich.; two nieces, Marcia Glatt and Meryl Glatt-Rader, both of Framingham, Mass.; and two grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Harold Glatt.

Funeral services will be private.

PJB 11-8-03

GLATT, Irving

November 5, 2003. Residence: Baldino Dr., Cranston. Beloved husband of Evelyn (Fischer) Glatt. Devoted Father of Phillip Glatt of Cranston and Rise Siegel of Farmington Hills, MI. Dear Brother of the late Harold Glatt. Loving Grandfather of Corey Benjamin and Kaley May Siegel. Cherished Uncle of Marcia Glatt and Meryl Glatt-Rader both of Framingham, MA. Funeral Service will be private. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to the charity of your choice. Shiva will be private. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave, Cranston.