

GLAZER, DAVID

DAVID GLAZER, 86, of Dryden Boulevard, a retired investigator for the State of Rhode Island, died Saturday at Rhode Island Hospital, Providence.

He was the husband of Thelma V. (Wood) Glazer. Born in Providence, a son of the late Samuel and Ida (Roth) Glazer, he had lived in Warwick since 1954.

Mr. Glazer worked as an investigator for the State of Rhode Island in the Department of Taxation, and later in the Department of Family Support, and had previously worked as a cab driver.

He was an Army Air Forces veteran of World War II, a member of the William Shields American Legion Post 43, and a life member of the DAV.

He was an honorary member of the ASPCA, and the Knightsville Franklin Church.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Barbara L. Arnold and Sheila Perreault, both of Warwick; a brother, Sydney Glazer of Providence; a sister, Harriet Landesberg of Cranston; and 7 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Morris and Sadie Glazer, and Betty Levy.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
