OBITUARY

GLICKMAN, ROSE

MRS. GLICKMAN DEAD

9-11-37

Was Active in Several Jewish Organizations Here.

Mrs. Rose (Krohne) Glickman, wife of Harry Glickman, owner of Ray's Shoe Stores, died this morning at her home, 162 Emeline street after an illness of several years, at the age of 47.

Born in this city, the daughter of the late Solomon and Betsey Krohne, Mrs. Glickman was educated in the Providence public schools and was long identified with many leading Jewish organizations of women of the State, including the Sisterhood of Temple Beth-el, Providence Section, National Council of Jewish Women, the Ladies' Auxiliary, Home for the Jewish Aged and the Montefiore Hebrew Ladies' Benevolent Association.

Besides her husband, whom she married in 1913, she is survived by a son, Herbert Wilson Glickman, a junior at Brown University; and a brother, Maurice Krohne.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 1 o'clock at the Max Sugarman funeral chapel, 150 Randall street. Burial will be in the Cemetery of the Congregation of Israel and David, Reservoir avenue.
