GLICKSMAN, SALLY

PJB
1-17-09

PROVIDENCE

GLICKMAN, SALLY (DVLINSKY), 85, died on January 14, 2009, after a long period of failing health. A Needham resident of six years, she was the beloved wife of Murray I. Glickman, together having recently celebrated their sixty-sixth wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Glickman was the cherished mother of Deborah A. Waldman of Providence, RI, and Jo Lewis of Framingham, MA, and of deceased children Alan Don Glickman, Linda Rose Shapiro, and John Phillip Glickman. Mrs. Glickman leaves five treasured grandchildren: A. David Lewis, Jake D. Lewis, Adam Burton Shapiro, Allissa Tova Shapiro and Edith Katerina Waldman.

Mrs. Glickman enjoyed a busy, fulfilling, fifty-five-year career as a volunteer for a wide range of many charities. Her most active charitable involvements included serving as a certified volunteer Braille typist for the Library of Congress; a longstanding involvement with the Gumbo Limbo Nature Center, Florida; Girl Scouts of America, Massachusetts section; and Temple Shalom of Newton, MA.

In 1955, Mrs. Glickman founded the first public nursery school in Newton, MA. Mrs. Glickman attended Brockton High School and Wheelock College, Boston, MA.

Funeral Services will be private.

Memorial observance will be private. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to the charity of your choice.