PSJ-3-13-88

Jack Gold

PROVIDENCE — Jack Gold, 90, of Charlesgate South Apartments, 20 Randall St., owner of the former Gold's Variety Store for 18 years before retiring 30 years ago, died yesterday at home. He was the husband of the late Fannie (Rositsky) Gold.

Born in New York City, a son of the late Herman and Rebecca Gold, he moved from Topeka, Kan., to Providence in 1940.

Mr. Gold was an Army veteran of World War I and a member of the American Legion. He was a member of Temple Beth-El.

He leaves a daughter, Dorothy Weinberg of Providence; two grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Sons of Israel and David Cemetery.

GOLD, Jack