PSJ 2-21-88

Louis Gold

NEWPORT — Louis Gold, 79, of 32 Toppa Blvd., a salesman for the Interstate Corp., Providence, before retiring, died yesterday at the Oakwood Nursing Center. He was the husband of Eva (Levine) Gold.

Born in New York City, a son of the late Maurice and Ida Gold, he lived in Newport for many years.

Mr. Gold had also been an agent for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., and co-owner of Swan Cleanser. He was a member of the Kiwanis International, the B'nai B'rith, the AARP and Temple Shalom, Middletown.

He leaves a son, Robert Gold of Brookfield, Conn.; two daughters, Phyllis Gold Shapiro of Newport and Marsha Gold Jagolinzer of Framingham, Mass.; a brother, Max Gold of Fall River; a sister, Rose Chapman of San Francisco, and eight grandchildren.

The funeral will be held today at 11 a.m. at Temple Shalom, Valley Road. Burial will be in Beth Olam Cemetery, Middletown.

Gold, Louis