GOLDBERG, Jennie (Jean)

Providence

PJ 11-22-2000

JENNIE Z. "JEAN" GOLDBERG, 93, of 353 Blackstone Blvd., at one time the co-owner of a woman's clothing store in Providence, died Monday at Epoch Assisted Living on Blackstone Boulevard.

She was the wife of the late Jesse H. Goldberg. Together, they owned and operated the former Jean's clothing store on Westminster Street during the late 1920s. She was a lifelong Providence resident, a daughter of the late Heskell and Hattie (Krasnow) Hyman.

She was a graduate of Classical High School and attended Boston University. She graduated from the former Hans Schneider Conservatory of Music in Providence.

Mrs. Goldberg was a dress buyer for Pinkerson's for several years. Thereafter, she was a dress buyer for more than 25 years with the New York Lace and Warwick Shopper's World stores before retiring in 1968. In the 1960s she was listed in Who's Who in American Women.

Mrs. Goldberg was a dedicated pianist throughout her life. She also loved to play golf and paint.

She was a member of Temple Beth-El, and Hadassah, and a former member of the Crestwood Country Club, Rehoboth.

She leaves one son, Lawrence Y. Goldberg of Tiburon, Calif., two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Nathan and Joseph Hyman.

The funeral will be held today at 11 a.m. in the Bennett Chapel at Temple Beth-El, 70 Orchard Ave., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
