GOLDBERG,
Dr. Louis

RIHER 10-1-65

DR. LOUIS GOLDBERG

Funeral services for Dr. Louis Goldberg of 57 Bartlett Avenue, Cranston, who died Sept. 26, were held Wednesday at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. He had been a chiropodist with offices in the Alice Building in Providence for 30 years.

Born in Norwich, Conn., on Nov. 15, 1894, he was the son of the late David and Sarah Goldberg. He had lived in Providence for 65 years before moving to Cranston two years ago.

Dr. Goldberg was graduated from the New England College of Podiatry in 1934. He was a veteran of World War I, a charter member of the American Legion, Businessmen's Post, Providence, and a member of the Overseas Lodge, F. & A. M., Providence, and the Rhode Island Jewish Fraternal Association.

He is survived by his wife, Gertrude E. (Silverman) Goldberg; a son, Harvey Goldberg of Middletown; a daughter, Mrs. Joseph Mittleman of Cranston; three brothers, Eli, Philip and Harry Goldberg, all of Boston, and five grandchildren.