GOLDBERG, Samuel D.

JULY 17, 1995

THE PROVIDENCE JOURNAL-BULLETIN

Pawtucket

SAMUEL D. GOLDBERG of 58 Stoneyside Lane, St. Louis, Mo., formerly of 98 Wilcox Ave., a director of social services for the City of St. Louis for 25 years before he retired, died June 29 at home. He was the husband of Shirley Goldberg.

Born in Pawtucket, a son of the late Jacob and Ida (Cohen) Goldberg, he moved to St. Louis 25 years ago.

Mr. Goldberg was an Army veteran of World War II and served in Europe.

Besides his wife, he leaves three daughters, Donna Shatz, Harriet Blickenstaff and Judy Goldberg, all of St. Louis; a brother, William R. Goldberg of Pawtucket and Matunuck, retired chief justice of Rhode Island Family Court; and five grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Esther Gopen, Bessie Pomarans, Anna E. Abrams-Kolodny, Harry Goldberg and Max and Hyman Wagner.

A graveside service was held July 3 at Beth Hamedrosh Hagodol Cemetery in St. Louis.

SAMUEL D. GOLDBERG

PAWTUCKET — Samuel D. Goldberg, a retired director of social services in St. Louis, and a native of Pawtucket R.I., died on June 29.

He was the husband of Shirley Goldberg, the father of Donna Shatz, Harriet Blickenstaff and Judy Goldberg and grandfather of five grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

Also, locally, he leaves a brother, retired Chief Justice William R. Goldberg, of the Rhode Island Family Court.

He was the brother of the late Esther Gopen, Bessie Pomarans, Anna E. Abrams-Kolodney, Harry Goldberg and Max and Hyman Wagner.

Burial was in St. Louis.

R.I. JEWISH HERALD 7/20/95