PROVIDENCE — Shirley Goldberg, 90, of Blackstone Boulevard died yesterday at the Hattie Ide Chaffee Nursing Home, East Providence. She was wife of the late Barney M. Goldberg.

Born in Boston, a daughter of the late Henry and Bertha Aronson, she lived in Providence for 50 years.

Mrs. Goldberg was an officer, board member and fund-raiser for many years for the the Jewish Home for the Aged, Hadassah, the Alperin-Schechter Day School, and the National Council of Jewish Women. She was a member of Temple Emanu-El. She served as treasurer of the Aronson Family Foundation.

Jewish education was one of the focal points of her efforts. She endowed scholarships at the Alperin-Schechter Day School, the Providence Hebrew Day School, and the Temple Emanu-El Religious School, and contributed to the libraries of Brandeis University, and the Jewish Theological Seminary of America. She and her sister endowed a room in the Matilda Schechter Residence of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America.

In 1989, she was honored by the Alperin-Schechter Day School as one of four outstanding Jewish women in Rhode Island. She was previously honored by the Temple Emanu-El Sisterhood Torah Fund.

She leaves a sister, Hannah Levinson Quint of Chestnut Hill, Mass. She was sister of the late Solomon S. Aronson.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow 10 a.m. at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue. Burial will be in Adath Jeshurun Cemetery, West Roxbury, Mass.
