GOLDBERG, SOL

PJB 3-4-04

SOL GOLDBERG, 85, of West Shore Road, a Navy officer and administrator, died yesterday at Kent County Memorial Hospital.

He was the husband of Elaine E. (Grinker) Goldberg. Born in Long Branch, N.J., a son of the late Max and Esther Goldberg, he moved to Rhode Island in 1960. Mr. Goldberg was a 30-year Navy veteran, serving in World War II and Korean War before retiring as a chief warrant officer.

He had then worked as an administrator at the state Department of Health for 17 years.

He was a 32nd-degree Mason.

Mr. Goldberg served as president of the Rhode Island Environmental Health Association.

He attended the University of California, Berkeley.

He leaves a daughter, Dona Goldman, and a son, Mark Goldberg, both of Cranston; and a grandson. He was the brother of the late Samuel Goldberg and Ethel Lieberman.

A graveside service will be held today at 1 p.m. in Sinai Memorial Park.
