Goldberg, Thomas H

GOLDBERG, Thomas

May 23, 1973. Beloved husband of Sara (Mittelman) Goldberg. Residence Touisset Point, Warren. Funeral services to which relatives and friends are invited will be held Friday at 12 noon at the Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to the Jewish Home for the Aged. Shiva will be observed at his late residence.

Providence Evening Bulletin

Thomas H. Goldberg

Owned Drug Store,

Served in R.I. House

Thomas H. Goldberg, 73, formerly of Providence and a resident of Port Charlotte, Fla., long a Providence pharmacist, died yesterday at Rhode Island Hospital after a two-week illness. He was the husband of Sara (Mittelman) Goldberg.

He was the owner of Goldberg's Chemist Shop at the corner of Smith and Candace Street in Providence, from 1923 to 1969. In 1938 he was elected a member of the House of Representatives from the 16th Representative District. He was associated with his late brothers, Barney and Philip Goldberg and his surviving brother Leo Goldberg, a Providence attorney, in various real estate enterprises and especially in developing the Warwick Mills Complex.

He graduated from the Rhode Island College of Pharmacy in 1922.

Mr. Goldberg was a member of Temple Emanu-el, the Congregation Sons of Zion; Congregation Sons of Jacob; the Rhode Island Pharmaceutical Association.

Besides his wife and his brother, Leo, he is survived by a son Dr. Gerald M. Goldberg of Framingham, Mass.; a daughter, Miss Barbara R. Goldberg of New York City; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Horowitz and Mrs. Gertrude A. Harris both of Providence, and two grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at noon at the Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

Thurs., May 24, 1973

GOLDBERG, THOMAS H.