GOLDBERG, William

RIHER 7-2663

WILLIAM GOLDBERG

Funeral services for William Goldberg, 52, of 27 Dryden Avenue, Pawtucket, who was found dead in his car in the garage at his home Tuesday, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

He was the husband of the late Sylvia (Giptelman) Goldberg. He was treasurer of Harry Goldberg Company, textile wastes and scrap metal.

Mr. Goldberg, a 1932 graduate of Brown University, was active in civic, service club and fraternal affairs.

He was past president of the Gamilath Chesed Association, and had been a member of the Pawtucket Rotary Club, and the Pawtucket Blackstone Valley Chamber of Commerce.

He was also a member of Temple Beth El of Providence, B'nai B'rith, Palestine Shrine, Jenks Lodge F & AM, and the executive board of the Blackstone Valley United Jewish Appeal.

He was co-chairman of the Central Falls Boys' Club Committee and a trustee of the Pawtucket Boys' Club.

He is survived by his parents, Harry and Ida (Goldstein) Goldberg; three sons, Harvey, David and Jeffrey, and one daughter, Barbara, all of Pawtucket; and four sisters, Mrs. Philip Hak and Mrs. Evelyn Mellion, both of Pawtucket, Mrs. Paul Goldfine of Woonsocket, and Mrs. Robert Silverman of Cleveland.