Goldblatt, Berton

4-14-2002

Berton Goldblatt

BOYNTON BEACH, Fla. — Berton Goldblatt, 75,  of Brisata Circle, formerly of Narragansett, a wholesale liquor salesman, died April 14 at JFK Hospice in Lake Worth.

He was the husband of Muriel K. (Kaplan) Goldblatt. Born in Providence, a son of the late Abraham and Lucille (Turcott) Goldblatt, he had lived in Cranston for many years before moving to Narragansett. He moved to Florida this year.

Mr. Goldblatt served as an Air Force corporal during World War II.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Susan Kisler, of Golden, Colo., and Rhonda Feldman, of Rhode Island; a son, Dr. Steven Rothstein, of Manchester, NH; a sister, Ruth Kaplan, of Lincoln; and six grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Anita Daniels.

A graveside service was held at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.