GOLDEN, PAULA S., 59 of Providence and Narragansett, died Saturday, July 21, 2007 surrounded by her family. She was the beloved wife of David Golden to whom she was married for 36 years and the devoted mother of Joshua A. Golden of Boston, MA.

A lifelong resident of Providence, she was the daughter of the late Karl and Beverly Foss and the late Irene Foss. She graduated from Boston University and enjoyed a long career as an owner of Primrose Lane, originally a silk flower and accessories store and later a home-decorating business. Always a lady, she was an elegant and welcoming hostess whose home was filled with her paintings, needlepoint, and many collections reflecting her fine taste. She loved her summers by the ocean in Narragansett, knitting, gardening, and entertaining her family and friends. She was a member of Temple Beth El, Ledgemont Country Club and the Handicraft Club.

Besides her husband and son, she is survived by her brother Edward Foss and his wife Marjorie of Swansea, MA, her sister Beth Wolfe of Chevy Chase, MD and her sister-in-law Carol Baker of Providence. She leaves many adoring nieces, nephews, cousins and devoted friends.

Her funeral will be held Monday, July 23, 2007 at 11:00 A.M. at Temple Beth El, 70 Orchard Avenue, Providence, RI 02906. Burial will be private. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Paula's memory to Temple Beth El, c/o The Paula Golden Memorial Fund. Shiva will be observed at her late residence in Providence, Mon. 2-4 & 7-9 PM, Tues. 2-4 & 7-9 PM, and Wed. 2-4 & 7-9 PM. The family was assisted with the arrangements by SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL.
