MARIAN (KAGAN) GOLDFINE, 85, of 75 Minnesota Ave., formerly of Gaskill Street, Woonsocket, a former owner of a gift-order business, died yesterday at home.

She was the wife of Nathan Goldfine. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Harry and Ethel (Brody) Kagan, she had lived in Woonsocket for 56 years, moving to Warwick 18 months ago.

Mrs. Goldfine was the owner for 10 years of Ventures Unlimited, a retail gift and home-decor business that she operated from her home in Woonsocket. She attended the University of Rhode Island extension program.

She was a member of Congregation B'nai Israel, served as its financial secretary for 22 years, was named an honorary member of its board of directors, and was a life member of the Woonsocket Hebrew Ladies' Aide and Hadassah.

Besides her husband, she leaves two sons, Richard Goldfine of Warwick and Charles Goldfine of New York City, two grandsons and a great-grandson. She was the sister of the late Morris, Edward, Jacob, Samuel and Bernard Kagan, Bee Davis, Anna Drodenker and Rose Kolodny Samuel.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. in Congregation B'nai Israel, 224 Prospect St., Woonsocket. Burial will be in B'nai Israel Cemetery, Woonsocket.
