PJB

10-4-07

GOLDIN, EDWARD

PROVIDENCE

GOLDIN, EDWARD, 77, of 51 Harwich Road, died at home, on October 2, surrounded by his family. He is survived by his beloved wife of 51 years, Maxine (Newman) Goldin. Born in Providence, he was the son of the late Samuel and Celia (Chambers) Goldin. He was a life long resident of Providence.

He was a graduate of Classical High School, University of Rhode Island and Boston University Law School.

Eddie was an active member of the community. He served as President of Temple Beth El and held several positions on the Board of Directors of non profit organizations, including Trustee of the Providence Public Library and most recently as a Director of the Groden Center. He was active in politics, serving as a Providence City Councilman for 12 years, chairing several committees including the Zoning and Ordinance Committee. He served as long time member and chair of his local Ward Committee and Senatorial District Committee. He was a 32 degree Mason.

He was a founding partner of the firm of Pucci & Goldin, Inc. now known as Goldin & Tutalo and was a well respected attorney more than 51 years. He was a Member of the RI Bar Association, served on several of its committees including Liaison with Certified Public Accountants and Availability of Legal Services and was a Lifetime Fellow of the RI Bar Foundation. He was also a member of RI Trial Lawyers Association, American Bar Association, American Trial Lawyers Association and Commercial Law League of America among others.

Besides his wife, he is survived by 3 daughters, Ellen Goldin, of Brooklyn, NY, Sherry Goldin, of Providence and Donna Goldin and her husband David Usher of Cranston; 2 grandchildren, Sam and Molly Usher; a sister, Estelle Rosen, of Delray Beach, Fl; and adoring nieces and nephews. He was the brother of the late Betty Presser and Frances Miller.

The funeral will be held Friday, October 5 at 10 AM at Temple Beth El.

Shiva will be observed at his late