GOLDIS, Irving

9-25-00

IRVING GOLDIS, 82, of 600 New London Ave., a retired salesman, died Saturday at Eleanor Slater Hospital.

He was the husband of May (Bornstein) Goldis. Born in Central Falls, a son of the late Harry and Ida (Shapiro) Goldis, he was a lifelong resident of Rhode Island. Mr. Goldis was a salesman for Highlights children's magazine for 15 years before retiring in 1991.

Previously, he was a salesman for Electrolux Vacuum Cleaning Co. for 20 years. He served in the Army Air Forces during World War II.

He was a member of the Jewish Softball League, and loved to watch and participate in various sports.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Carl Goldis of East Greenwich and Harold Goldis of Wakefield; two daughters, Nancy Langford of Dixmont, Maine, and Karen Isskenderov of Winterhaven, Fla.; two sisters, Helen Goldis of Warwick and Edna Schwartz in New Jersey; a brother, Robert Goldis in California; and eight grandchildren. He was a brother of the late Ruth Rupp, Eva Loguidice, and Mark, Herbert and Melvin Goldis.

A graveside funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. ✓
