Goldman, Louis

PJB 11-22-05

GOLDMAN, LOUIS, 82, of Rhode Island Veterans Home, Bristol, formerly of Cranston, died Monday at the Home. He was the beloved husband of Ruth (Solinger) Goldman of Cranston.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Jacob and Sarah (Pearl) Goldman, he had lived in Cranston for 40 years before moving to Bristol. He was a WWII Army veteran serving in Europe and Africa and a veteran of the Korean war, serving stateside. He was a cafeteria manager for the Rhode Island MHRH for over 10 years, retiring 19 years ago. He enjoyed politics.

Devoted father of Sandra Goldman of Cranston and the late Joan Goldman Carroll. Dear brother of Abraham Goldman of Manchester, NH and the late Yetta Davie. Loving grandfather of Leah and Hayley.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 1 p.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Avenue, Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Rhode Island Veterans Home, 480 Metacom Ave., Bristol, RI 02809. Shiva will be observed at his late residence, 654 Phenix Ave., Cranston, Wednesday 7-9 and Friday 2-4 p.m.