Mark Goldman, RIC professor

WEST WARWICK — Mark E. Goldman, 49, of 66 Governor's Hill Drive, a communications professor at Rhode Island College for 24 years, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Linda (Rogers) Goldman.

Born in New York, a son of the late David and Ina (Kahn) Goldman, he lived in West Warwick for three years. He previously lived in Warwick.

Mr. Goldman was a graduate of Emerson College, Boston, with a bachelor's degree in 1966, and a master's degree in 1968. He received a doctorate from the University of Massachusetts, Amherst, in 1975.

In 1993, he was nominated for the "Distinguished Teacher of the Year" at Rhode Island College. He was a graduate of the Annenberg Faculty Seminars, Washington, D.C., in 1986 and 1991. He was chairman of the ritual committee, and a member of the board of directors of Temple Am David, and a former member of Temple Beth Shalom.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, David L. Goldman of Providence, and a sister, Patricia Goldman Gurevich of Bedford Hills, N.Y.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in B'nai B'rith Cemetery, Worcester, Mass.
