

GOLDMAN, Norma (Gouse)

August 22, 1991. Residence 2480 Presidential Way, West Palm Beach, FL. Beloved wife of the late Leonard Yale Goldman. Dearest Mother of Stephan Goldman of Warwick, Judy Goldman of Houston, TX and Meryl Bornstein of Radford, VA. Loving sister of Nathaniel Gouse of Providence and the late Rosalind Brier. Dear grandmother of 6 grandchilden. Funeral services will be held Friday at 11:30 a.m. at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Ave. at Sessions St. In lieu of flowers conributions in her memory may be made to The Jewish Home for the Aged. Shiva will be observed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephan Goldman, 460 Spring Green Rd., Warwick, 8-10 p.m. Saturday and 2-4, 7-9 p.m. Sunday through Wednesday. Arrangement by the SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St., corner of Doyle, Michael B. Smith, Associate.

Norma Goldman

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. — Norma Goldman, 76, of 2480 Presidential Way, a schoolteacher before retiring, died yesterday in Miriam Hospital, Providence. She was the widow of Leonard Yale Goldman.

Born in Boston, she was a daughter of the late Harry and Jennie (Holiver) Gouse. Mrs. Goldman had lived in Florida for the last five years, previously living in Pawtucket.

Mrs. Goldman was a Sunday School teacher at Temple Emanu-El of Providence and was a math teacher in Providence for many years.

Mrs. Goldman was a 1936 graduate of Rhode Island College. She had also attended Brown University graduate school.

She was a member of the choir of Temple Emanu-El and was past president of its Sisterhood and Garden Club. She was past president of the Providence Chapter of Hadassah and of the Rotary Women.

Mrs. Goldman was an officer of the Ladies Association, Jewish Home for the Aged of Providence and Miriam Hospital Women's Association. Mrs. Goldman was a member of and book reviewer for Brandeis University Women's Association.

She was a member of Providence Council, Jewish Women and the Jewish Federation. She was a lecturer at the Rhode Island School of Design Museum and the Providence Preservation Society. Mrs. Goldman was also a Girl Scout and Brownie leader.

She leaves a son, Stephan Goldman of Warwick; two daughters, Judy Goldman of Houston, Texas, and Meryl Bornstein of Radford, Va.; a brother, Nathaniel Gouse of Providence; and six grandchildren. Mrs. Goldman was also a sister of the late Rosalind Brier.

The funeral service will be today at 11:30 a.m. at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue at Sessions Street, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

GOLDMAN, Norma