Sidney Goldman, 66; real estate broker

PROVIDENCE — Sidney Goldman, 66, of the Regency Apartments, 60 Broadway, a real estate developer and broker, died Thursday at the J.F. Kennedy Hospital, Lakewood, Fla.

Born in Cambridge, Mass., he was a son of the late Myer and Anna (Yogel) Goldman.

Mr. Goldman was in business for 40 years. He served as chairman of the Providence Tax Assessment Board of Review under the administrations of Mayors Joseph A. Doorley Jr. and Vincent A. Cianci Jr., and stepped down from his post in January, 1983. He was a member of the Rhode Island Board of Realtors, Temple Beth-El, the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island, the Jewish Home for the Aged and the Ledgemont Country Club.

He leaves a daughter, Wendy Goldman of Los Angeles; a son, Peter Goldman, a student at Georgetown University, Washington, D.C.; a sister, Sylvia G. Zalkind of Providence, and a brother, Seymour M. Goldman of Cranston.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at noon at Temple Beth-El, Orchard Avenue. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
