Jules P. Goldsmith

PAWTUCKET — Jules P. Goldsmith, 69, of 50 Cooke St., died yesterday in Miriam Hospital after an eight-month illness.

He was the husband of Mollie (Weinberg) Goldsmith.

He established Goldsmith Co., an advertising agency, in 1938 which he operated until 1950. He joined Royal Electric Co. of Pawtucket, as a vice president from 1950 to 1962. In 1962, he became an account executive for G.H. Walker, an investments company which became White Weld Co., and then Merrill Lynch Inc. He retired on Sept. 1.

Born in Wilmington, Del., March 18, 1910, he was a son of the late Moses L. and Pauline (Shindler) Goldsmith. He had lived in Providence since 1938 and moved to Pawtucket nine years ago. He also had a summer residence in Middletown.

A graduate of the Gettysburg Academy, the University of Pennsylvania and the Wharton School of Finance, he was a member of Temple Beth-El, the Jewish Community Center, the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island, and the Rhode Island School of Design.

Besides his wife, he leaves three daughters, Paula S. Epstein of Bethany, Conn., Lyn T. Schaffer of Rockville, Md., and Miriam Goldsmith-Wright of Ferndale, Calif.; a stepmother, Susan Fickthorn-Goldsmith and a sister, Sarah Kurtz, both of Oaklyn, N.J., and four grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at noon at Temple Beth-El, 70 Orchard Ave., Providence. Private burial will be in Sons of Israel and David Cemetery, Providence.

GOLDSMITH,
JULES P.
