Providence Evening Bulletin,

Milton Goldsmith

Milton J. Goldsmith, 61, of 248 Warrington St., founder and president of the Biltmore Textile Co., died unexpectedly this morning at Rhode Island Hospital. He was the husband of Cora (Horowitz) Goldsmith.

Born in Providence, March 27, 1900, a son of the late Hyman and Lena Goldsmith, he had been a lifelong resident of the city.

He was a member of Temple Beth Israel, the Touro Fraternal Association, Redwood Lodge, F&AM; United Commercial Travelers, the Jewish Home for the Aged and the Miriam Hospital Association.

Besides his wife, survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Bennett Yetra and Mrs. Jack Fradin; two sons, Sidney and Howard Goldsmith, all of Providence, and eight grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 11 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., with burial in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. Memorial Week will be observed at his home.
