Abraham H. Goldstein Leaves Suicide Note.

Abraham H. Goldstein, 34, of 290 Mount Pleasant avenue, died en route to Rhode Island Hospital last night after, police said, he had shot himself in the right temple while seated in his second-floor office at the Merchants' Super-service station, Randall square.

According to Capt. Thomas Pyne, of the Detective Division, police found a suicide note which indicated Goldstein had been despondent. Goldstein was found by Lester Kilroy, an attendant at the station.
