The Providence Sunday Journal, May 20, 1984 C

Obituaries

Alan B. Goldstein; victim of auto crash

COVENTRY — Alan B. Goldstein, 38, of Harkney Hill Road, a businessman, was killed yesterday in a car accident.

Mr. Goldstein was driving south on Harkney Hill Road at 6:15 a.m. when his Jeep crashed into a guardrail and a tree, said police.

He was taken to Kent County Memorial Hospital and pronounced dead at 7:40 a.m., a hospital spokeswoman said.

The accident is still under investigation, but police believe no other vehicles were involved.

Mr. Goldstein was owner of Sam's Clothes Store, Olneyville Square, Providence, for two years.

He was born in Providence, a son of Jeanne (Palow) Goldstein, and the late William Goldstein.

Mr. Goldstein was a graduate of the University of Mississippi in 1970. He had been associated with his father at Sam's Clothes Store which had been founded by his late grandfather. He was a member of the Rhode Island Army National Guard.

Besides his mother he leaves two sisters, Mrs. Sue Ellen Shapiro of Coventry, Mrs. Vicki Ava Cohen of Cherry Hill, N.J., and his grandmother, Mrs. Mollie Palow of Providence.

A funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. at Temple Sinai, Hagen Avenue, Cranston. Burial will be in Sinai Memorial Park, Warwick.

GOLDSTEIN, ALAN B.