THE EVENING BULLETIN 11-7-86

OBITUARIES

GOLDSTEIN
BENJAMIN

Benjamin Goldstein

CRANSTON — Benjamin Goldstein, 89, of 35 Ivanhoe St., an administrator with the Veterans Administration in Providence for many years before retiring, died Tuesday at Rhode Island Hospital. He was the husband of the late Leah (Goldman) Goldstein.

Born in Russia, he was a son of the late Jacob and Esther (Linsky) Goldstein. He had been a resident of Cranston and Providence for more than 50 years.

Mr. Goldstein was an Army veteran of World War I.

He leaves three brothers, Isaac Stone of Washington, D.C., Abraham Stone of Maryland and Harry Goldstein of Gainesville, Fla.

Graveside services were held yesterday at Pride of Boston Cemetery, Woburn, Mass. 11-7-86