GOLDSTEIN, Dr. GEORGE M., 69, of 39-1 Channel View, Warwick, died Wednesday at Hallworth House in Providence. He was the loving husband of Dorothy (Russell) Goldstein.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Frank and Marion (Cohen) Goldstein. He attended URI and was a graduate of Temple University, College of Podiatry, Philadelphia, PA. His graduate work was performed at California College of Podiatry in San Francisco. After service in the US Army Reserve at Fort Sam Houston in TX, he returned to his native state to begin practice with his father, Dr. Frank Goldstein. He was a life member of the American and RI Podiatric Medical Associations and served as president of R.I.P.M.A. for two consecutive terms from 1977-1982, his most important contribution being the coordination of the association's successful legal and professional quest for hospital privileges. Following this challenge, Dr. Goldstein served as R.I.P.M.A. Treasurer until 1994.

Dr. George served on the board of directors for many years. He was
