GOLDSTEIN, HERMAN

1-25-2000

HERMAN GOLDSTEIN, 82, of Charlotte, N.C., a leading figure in the textile industry, died Sunday at Carolinas Medical Center, Charlotte. He was the husband of Myrtle (Abedon) Goldstein.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Morris and Minnie (Hirsch) Goldstein, he graduated from Brown University in 1940. He had lived in Chester, S.C., for 29 years before moving to Charlotte last year.

Mr. Goldstein was founder and president of HBG Export Corp., and a 53-year member of the American Association of Textile Chemists & Colorists.

Inventor of the "permanent press" process, he received the ONLEY medal in 1973 and the Millson award in 1985.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Lawrence Goldstein of Topsfield, Mass.; a daughter, Caila Abedon of Staten Island, N.Y.; a brother, Sidney Goldstein of Portsmouth, N.H.; and a granddaughter.

The funeral will be in Charlotte.
