Joan E. Goldstein, 84

CRANSTON, R.I. – Joan (Efros) Goldstein passed away on Dec. 9. She was the wife of Gerald S. Goldstein for 66 years, and the mother of Jill Allyn.

She was a gentle person. She was a loving, devoted wife and mother. She was an outstanding cook and an avid bridge player and reader. In her early years, she was employed by Sterling Shoes. She worked at Peoples Bank and was a hospital volunteer for many years. She was the original bookkeeper for Kent/Town & Country Cleansers, the family businesses and retired as vice president. She will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved her.
