

GOLDSTEIN,
Louis D.

10-15-65
RIHER 10-15-65

Obitu

LOUIS D. GOLDSTEIN

Funeral services for Louis D. Goldstein of 30 Taft Avenue, who died Oct. 10, were held Tuesday at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. He was the husband of Sadie (Blazer) Goldstein.

Born in New York City on March 12, 1900, a son of the late Abraham and Ethel (Uffer) Goldstein, he had lived in Providence for 59 years. He was proprietor of the East Side Electric Company on Burlington Street, which he founded in 1945.

Mr. Goldstein was a member of Temple Beth El; a director of Brotherhood; a member of Jenks Lodge No. 24, F. & A. M. of Pawtucket, and of Palestine Shrine, Blackstone Valley Tall Cedars of Lebanon.

He is survived by his wife; a son, Burton W. Goldstein of Providence; a daughter, Mrs. Irving Ross of Providence; two brothers, Harry Goldstein of Pawtucket and Frank Goldstein of Providence; a sister, Mrs. Harry Uffer of Providence, and four grandchildren. ✓