

GOLNER,
DAVID

PSB 3-4-04

DAVID GOLNER, 84, of Berkeley, Calif., formerly of Pawtucket, a retired mechanical engineer, died Feb. 23 at Alta Bates Medical Center, Berkeley.

He was the husband of Dorothy (Robinson) Golner. Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., on July 27, 1919, a son of the late Morris and Rose (Milstein) Golner, he grew up in Providence and had lived in Pawtucket before moving to California in 1956.

He had been a mechanical engineer with the former Hammel-Dahl Co. and later became a partner in the Belilove Co., a company started by a boyhood friend. He retired in 1981. He was a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

He was a 1942 graduate of Brown University.

He was a past president and honorary trustee of Congregation Beth-El and vice president and campaign chairman of the Jewish Federation of East Bay, both in Berkeley. He served on the boards of directors of the Judah L. Magnus Museum and Lehrhaus Judaica.

He enjoyed golfing and had been a longtime member of Mira Vista Golf and Country Club.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son and a daughter, Geoffrey and Marcia Golner, both of Berkeley, and a sister, Beatrice Silver of Los Angeles. He was the father of the late Janet Carole Golner, and brother of the late Bernard Golner.

Services were held last month in Berkeley.
