Bernard Goodman

Cranston Man, Prominent in Jewish Groups, Dies Suddenly

Bernard Goodman

Bernard Goodman, 58, of 46 Glen View Dr., Cranston, proprietor of Stadium Hosiery Co., died suddenly yesterday after a short illness. Mr. Goodman was the husband of Ida (Coron) Goodman.

He was the son of the late Kopel and Hanah Goodman, and a resident of Providence for the past 47 years. He was a member of the board of directors of the Touro Fraternal Association, Temple Emanu-El, the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Jewish Community Center, the General Jewish Committee and Miriam Hospital and a member of Redwood Lodge, F. & A.M., of the Shrine and Aleppo Lodge of Boston, Chased Schel-Amess Association and the Elks, and past president of the Hebrew Free Loan Association.

Survivors, besides his wife, are a daughter, Mrs. Sumner Alpert of Fall River; a son, Carl Goodman, a student at Harvard; two grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Samuel Bregman of Sacramento, Calif.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. at Temple Emanu-El today. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

Memorial week will be at his late residence.
