MRS. HERMAN GOODMAN

Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie (Tversky) Goodman, 59, of 302 East Harmond Street, Phoenix, Ariz., formerly of Providence, who died suddenly on March 13, were held on Sunday at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

She was born in Russia on May 25, 1904, a daughter of Mrs. Anna (Torgan) Tversky and the late David Tversky, and had lived in Providence for 48 years. Mrs. Goodman was the widow of Herman E. Goodman.

Before she moved to Arizona nine years ago, Mrs. Goodman was a partner in the Fan-Rose Dress Shop for many years.

Mrs. Goodman was a former member of Temple Emanu-El.

Besides her mother, she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Alan Rich of Long Island, N.Y., and Mrs. William Berman of Phoenix; two brothers, Alton and Louis Tversky, both of Providence; one sister, Mrs. William Goldstein of Providence and four grandchildren.
