GORDON, ALBERT

PSJ 4-10-11

PROVIDENCE

GORDON, ALBERT, 96, of Providence, died Friday, April 8, 2011. He was the husband of the late Edith (Sonkin) Gordon. Born in Seattle, WA, he was the son of the late Max and Ida (Parker) Gordon.

Mr. Gordon was the founder and CEO of Clifford Metal Sales, Providence. He was active nationally in the Copper and Brass Industry, serving as president of the Copper and Brass Warehouse Assoc. Mr. Gordon was very active in national and RI Jewish organizations and was a member of Temple Beth-El and a former president of its brotherhood.

He is survived by his children Nancy Gordon and her husband Richard Rogers of Little Compton, and Michael Gordon and his wife Debra of Stamford, CT; his grandchildren Hilary Buxbaum and her husband David, Joel Gordon and his wife Julie, Leah Feldman and her husband David, Matthew Gordon, and Sarah Gordon; and his great-grandchildren Jaden, Alexa, and Ella Buxbaum and Molly Feldman. He was the father of the late Jeffrey and Arlene Gordon; father-in-law of the late Patricia Gordon; and brother of the late Elsie Abrahams.

His funeral service will be held TODAY, April 10th at 2 PM at Temple Beth-El, 70 Orchard Ave., Providence, with burial in Temple Beth-El Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in his memory to either Rabbi Gutterman Discretionary Fund at Temple Beth-El or to Lymphoma or Breast Cancer Research. Shiva will be observed at Epoch Asst. Living, 1 Butler Ave. Providence following the burial and 7-9 PM and Monday 2-4 & 7-9 PM. Arrangements by Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel.