MOLLIE GORDON

THE PROVIDENCE SUNDAY JOURNAL

5/3/87

Mollie Gordon

With late husband had operated Pawcatuck market for 23 years

BRONX, N.Y. — Mollie Gordon, 99, of the Daughters of Jacob Geriatric Center, a former 50-year resident of Westerly, died Tuesday at the Center.

Mrs. Gordon and her late husband, Julius, had owned and operated Gordon's Market in downtown Pawcatuck, Conn., from 1917 to 1940.

She was born in Moldechno, Russia, daughter of the late Solomon and Sulia Meltzer. She came to this country in 1890.

An active member of the Westerly Chapter of the American Red Cross, she was a member of Sharah Zedek Synagogue and had served as president of the local chapter of the American Council of Jewish Women.

She leaves three sons, Dr. Sydney Gordon of Wells, Maine, Dr. Yale Gordon of Merion, Pa., and Northeastern University Professor Bernard L. Gordon of Chestnut Hill, Mass.; a daughter, Sylvia G. Volpin of Israel; 10 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday in Queens.

GORDON, MOLLIE

E JEWISH ADV

GORDON, MOLLIE

of

Gordon 1910 and erly, R.I. in the mother of
Gordon of Wells,
he late Joseph Gora former teacher at nington, Ct., High School;
Sylvia G. Volpin, a former teacher at West Broad St. School in Westerly; Dr. Yale Gordon of Merion, Pa. and of Prof. Bernard L. Gordon of Newton and Northeastern University. She is also survived by ten grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on April 29, at Parkside Chapel in Queens, New York. Services were conducted by Rabbi Chiel Simon, Rabbi Israel Miller and Rabbi Morris Appleman.

Donations in her memory may be made to Cong. Sharah Zedek, Union St., Westerly, R.I.

THE PROVIDENCE SUNDAY JOURNAL

5/3/87

Mollie Gordon

With late husband had operated Pawcatuck market for 23 years

BRONX, N.Y. — Mollie Gordon, 99, of the Daughters of Jacob Geriatric Center, a former 50-year resident of Westerly, died Tuesday at the Center.

Mrs. Gordon and her late husband, Julius, had owned and operated Gordon's Market in downtown Pawcatuck, Conn., from 1917 to 1940.

She was born in Moldechno, Russia, daughter of the late Solomon and Sulia Meltzer. She came to this country in 1890.

An active member of the Westerly Chapter of the American Red Cross, she was a member of Sharah Zedek Synagogue and had served as president of the local chapter of the American Council of Jewish Women.

She leaves three sons, Dr. Sydney Gordon of Wells, Maine, Dr. Yale Gordon of Merion, Pa., and Northeastern University Professor Bernard L. Gordon of Chestnut Hill, Mass.; a daughter, Sylvia G. Volpin of Israel; 10 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday in Queens.

GORDON, MOLLIE

GORDON, Mollie

OBITUARIES

GORDON, MOLLIE

Mollie Gordon

Mollie Gordon, 99, a former resident of Westerly, Rhode Island, died on Tuesday, April 28, in New York City. Mrs. Gordon and her husband, the late Julius Gordon, owned and operated Gordon's Market in Downtown Pawcatuck, Connecticut from 1917 until 1940. She was born in 1888 in Moldechno, Russia, the daughter of Solomon Meltzer, and came to the United States in 1890.

Mrs. Gordon was an active member of the Westerly Chapter of the Red Cross, was a member of Sharah Zedek Synagogue and served as president of the local chapter of The American Council of Jewish Women.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Gordon were married in 1910 and moved to Westerly, R.I. in 1917. She was the mother of Dr. Sydney Gordon of Wells, Maine; the late Joseph Gordon, a former teacher at Stonington, Ct., High School; Sylvia G. Volpin, a former teacher at West Broad St. School in Westerly; Dr. Yale Gordon of Merion, Pa. and of Prof. Bernard L. Gordon of Newton and Northeastern University. She is also survived by ten grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on April 29, at Parkside Chapel in Queens, New York. Services were conducted by Rabbi Chiel Simon, Rabbi Israel Miller and Rabbi Morris Appleman.

Donations in her memory may be made to Cong. Sharah Zedek, Union St., Westerly, R.I.